

Industrial Technology Institute
Ministry of Science & Technology

Vacancy for a temporary research assistant for a project

Project title: GABA enriched Moringa value added products by fermentation method and pilot scale production – China collaborative project.

Project period: 36 months

Expected qualifications: BSc in food science/bioengineering/chemical and process engineering.

The candidate need to register for a post graduate degree in the relevant area and only the registration fee is allowed to reimburse from the project and research fee at the university will not be covered by the project. Also, the candidate should be fit to work towards the project throughout the period.

Job description:

Field work, laboratory work, documentation, meeting arrangements with Chinese collaborator and troubleshooting on machineries used in the project.

Project location: Industrial Technology Institute, Halbarawa Gardens, Talahena, Malabe.

Allowance: Rs.60,000/-(Fixed allowance and not entitled for EPF, ETF or other allowances).

Biodata need to be sent to the following recipient within five working days by e-mail and detailed certificates, transcripts may be provided at the time of interview.

Dr.Chandima Wijayasiriwardena, Principal Investigator of the project, (drchandima@iti.lk), Industrial Technology Institute, 503A, Halbarawa Gardens, Talahena, Malabe.